Setting up of Environment Surveillance Squads in Central Pollution Control Board

290. SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have decided to set up Environment Surveillance Squads (ESS) in each Zonal Office of the Central Pollution Control Board;

(b) if so, what are the broad details of the scheme, indicating the precise constitution and functions of these squads; and

(c) how many such squads would be set up in Gujarat and other States and Union Territories?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (c) The Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its order dated 28.7.1995 has directed that Environmental Surveillance Squads be set up in each of the zonal offices of the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) in Bangalore (Karnataka), Vadodara (Gujarat), Bhopal (Madhya Pradesh), Calcutta (West Bengal), Kanpur (Uttar Pradesh) and Shillong (Meghalaya). Steps have been initiated for compliance of these directions.

The Surveillance Squads are expected to be involved in planning, organising resources and facilities, and interacting with State Pollution Control Boards, State Governments and industries. The squads have also to suggest clean technologies of production processes to prevent pollution at source and present findings before the Courts when needed. These squads would consist of one of each of the following personnel in the Zonal Offices and two of each at the Headquartes:—

1. Additional Director
2. Environmental Engineer/Scientist "C"
3. Junior Scientific Assistant
4. Legal Assistant ,
5. Junior Laboratory Assistant.

In addition, there is a post of a Director in the Headquarters.

The State of Gujarat would be covered by the Zonal Office at Vadodara.
